Jabali Ridge

Ruaha National Park, Tanzania - 3 Nights

Avid birders, rejoice! This itinerary brings you two of the most densely populated parts of Africa for viewing resident and migratory bird species and other exceptional African wildlife. Sand River Selous lodge in Tanzania is located along an iconic African riverbank, where approximately 450 types of birds can be seen. Birds aren't the only highlight, as Selous offers incredible safari experiences and luxury accommodations for visitors. As you come West to Ruaha National Park, Jabali Ridge records an impressive 600 bird species in the region, with landscapes full of mighty Baobab trees and the chance to view endangered African Wild Dogs. For a true birder, this safari experience is the perfect fit!
